Petitioner is a federal prisoner who is currently incarcerated at the Federal Detention Center at SeaTac, Washington. He is serving a forty-one month sentence imposed following his conviction on bank robbery charges in the United States District Court for the District of Oregon. (See Dkt. No. 11 at 2.) Petitioner has filed a federal habeas petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 in which he challenges the validity of the regulation issued by the Federal Bureau of Prisons (“BOP”) which categorically limits the class of prisoners eligible for release to community confinement based on the amount of time the prisoner has left to serve. (Dkt. No. 3.)

In Pankratz v. Palmquist, Case No. C06-1328-RSL, the District Court found that the regulation challenged in these proceedings, 28 C.F.R. § 570.21 (“the regulation”), which limits the

01 amount of time an inmate may spend in community confinement to 10% of the inmate's sentence,
02 was invalid because it exceeded the authority granted to the BOP under 18 U.S.C. § 3621(b).

03 Respondents have filed a response to the petition in which they set forth essentially the 04 same arguments advanced in Pankratz. (Dkt. No. 11 at 2). Specifically, respondents argue that 05 petitioner has not yet exhausted his administrative remedies and that he should be required to do
06 so before his case is considered by the Court. Respondents further argue that the challenged
07 regulation is valid and should be upheld. In Pankratz, the Court rejected both respondents'
08 procedural argument and respondents' substantive argument. This Court sees no basis on which 09 to distinguish the present case from Pankratz as to either issue.¹

10 Accordingly, this Court recommends granting the same relief afforded in Pankratz: that 11 BOP be directed to review petitioner's case under the factors outlined in 18 U.S.C. § 3621(b), 12 without regard to the time limits set forth in the regulation. A proposed order accompanies this 13 Report and Recommendation.

14 DATED this 13th day of July, 2007.

21 ¹ The Court acknowledges that petitioner Medrano has more time left to serve on his 22 sentence than did Mr. Pankratz. However, given the nature of the challenge presented, and the BOP's consistent response to that challenge, it would seem futile to require petitioner to pursue further administrative review of his claim.
